MINT AND CURRENCY.

The 4th October 1872.

No. 3299.

READ—

Section 16, Act XXIII. of 1870, the Indian Coinage Act, 1870.

Read again—

Mint and Currency Proceedings of January 1871, No. 19, being the rules prescribed by the Governor General in Council for the guidance of officers authorized to cut or break coin under the said section.

Also—

Mint and Currency Proceedings, No. 66 of March 1872, and Nos. 3 to 6 of May 1872, by which it was explained that quarter rupees and eighths of a rupee are legal tender for their nominal value, even though they have lost more than two per cent. in weight by reasonable wearing.

RESOLUTION.—Upon a re-consideration of these Proceedings, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council observes that while it is very necessary, in order to the preservation of the integrity of the coinage, to withdraw from circulation rupees and half rupees which have lost more than two per cent. in weight by reasonable wearing, and which are, therefore, no longer legal tender in payment or on account under Section 13 of the Act, it is not necessary or expedient to treat with the same strictness quarter rupees and eighths of a rupee which have lost more than two per cent. in weight by reasonable wearing.

2. These coins do not cease, by mere loss of weight, to be a legal tender in payment or on account under Section 13. They do not forfeit this attribute unless they have been clipped, or filed, or defaced, or diminished otherwise than by use.

3. The manufacture of these small coins is expensive, and the wear and tear by their use considerable, especially in some parts of the country. They are legal tender only for fractions of a rupee, and no public inconvenience is likely to be caused, even though they become, by loss of weight through wearing, mere token coins. It may even happen that some advantage to the circulation may arise from not withdrawing such a coin in this condition owing to there being less temptation to melt coins so diminished in weight. Moreover, in the case of such small coins, it may not be easy with ordinary appliances to ascertain so slight a loss of weight as two per centum.

4. The Governor General in Council is accordingly pleased to decide that, in future, quarter rupees and eighths of a rupee shall not be cut or broken or withdrawn from circulation only because they have lost, by reasonable wearing, more than two per cent. in weight.

5. The rules prescribed for the guidance of officers authorized to cut or break coin under Section 16 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1870, should accordingly be modified, and all proceedings, not in accordance with the present resolution, cancelled.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this resolution and the following notification be published in the Gazette of India:

NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the power conferred by Section 16 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1870, the Governor General in Council is pleased to declare that every officer in charge of a Government Treasury, every Commissioner, Deputy or Assistant Commissioner of the Department of Issue of the Government Paper Currency, the Secretary and Treasurer of each of the Banks of Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, and every Agent in charge of a branch of any of the said Banks, is authorised to act under this section:

* No. 451, dated 24th January 1871.
 " 4445, " 19th October "
 " 4895, " 3rd November "
 " 442, " 24th January 1872.
 " 2118, " 22nd March "
 " 2528, " 4th April "
 " 3563, " 17th May "

And in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 28 of the same Act, the Governor General in Council is pleased to revoke the notifications and resolutions in this Department noted on the margin, and to prescribe the following rules:

1. When any silver coin, purporting to be coined and issued under the authority of the Government of India, is tendered to any of the officers authorised by his notification to act under Section 16 of the Indian Coinage Act, 1870, who has reason to believe it to be counterfeit, or to have been reduced in weight otherwise than by reasonable wearing, he shall cut and break such coin, and, under Section 16 of the said Act, return the pieces to the person tendering the coin.
2. When any rupee or half rupee purporting to be coined and issued under the authority of the Government of India is tendered to any such officer who has reason to believe it to have lost, by reasonable wearing, more than two per cent. in weight, he shall cut or break such coin, and, at the option of the person tendering the coin, return to him the pieces, or retain them and pay to him their value at the rate of one rupee for one hundred and eighty grains troy weight.
3. A quarter rupee, or an eighth of a rupee, tendered to such an officer must, under Section 13 of the Act, be accepted as legal tender for a fraction of a rupee, even though it have lost, by reasonable wearing, more than two per cent. in weight.
4. If by reason of the obliteration of the device upon it, or for any other cause, any quarter rupee, or eighth of a rupee, that shall come into the possession of such an officer shall appear to him to be unfit for further circulation, it shall not be cut or broken, but shall, whatever be its weight, be withdrawn from circulation, and dealt with in the manner prescribed in Rule 5. But quarter rupees and eighths of a rupee shall not be withdrawn from circulation, if they appear to be otherwise fit to circulate, only because they have lost, by reasonable wearing, more than two per cent. in weight.
5. The pieces of coin cut or broken and paid for under Rule 2, and the coin withdrawn from circulation under Rule 4, shall be sent by the first convenient opportunity to the Master of the Mint at Bombay or Calcutta. Meanwhile, the actual sum paid for the cut or broken pieces, and the nominal value of the coin withdrawn, shall be entered in the statement of the cash balance of the officer who has received them as "uncurrent coin." Upon their receipt at the Mint, the Master of the Mint shall give credit for them at the same values, and any loss incurred in their re-coinage shall be a charge of the Mint.
6. No officer of any of the Presidency Banks shall exercise any of the powers conferred on him by this notification save in respect of coin received by him on behalf of Government.

PENSIONS AND GRATUITIES.

The 2nd October 1872.

No. 3282.—The Governor General in Council directs that Rule 4 of Section 66, Civil Pension Code, be cancelled, and that the following rules be added to the Code:

Section 46, Rule 3—If an officer has held more than one appointment, in respect of each of which, if he had held it separately and alone, pension or gratuity, would have been admissible to him, the pension or gratuity or pension and gratuity, admissible to him is the sum of the several pensions or gratuities, or pensions and gratuities, which would have been admissible to him if he had held each office separately and alone.

The consolidated pension thus admissible is subject to the Rules 56 (b) and (c), limiting its amount to a certain maximum fixed with reference to length of service and average emoluments.

An officer is not entitled, for service in an office conjointly with another office, to any pension or gratuity which would not have been admissible to him if he had held the office separately and alone.

Section 96 A.—An officer holding two or more separate appointments may not, save with the express sanction of the Government of India in the Financial Department, receive a pension or gratuity in respect to one or more of such appointments, without retiring from the service altogether. There is no objection to his being relieved from one or more of such appointments at any time, without being compelled to leave the service altogether; but, in such case, any pension or gratuity which may be admissible to him in respect to the office or offices of which he is relieved, will be deferred until he finally retires.

35 & 36 VICTORIA, CAP. 55.

An Act for making better provision for the erection of Light-houses on the Great Basses Rock, and on the Little Basses Rock, in the Colony of Ceylon.

[6th August 1872.]

Whereas by the Merchant Shipping Amendment Act, 1855, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and the Public Works Loan Commissioners are authorised to advance sums of money for the purpose of constructing a light-house on or near the coast of any British possession:

And whereas certain sums were advanced by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the establishment of a light-ship near the Little Basses Rock off the coast of Ceylon, part of which has been repaid out of the dues received in respect of such light-ship, leaving a balance of eight thousand three hundred and thirty-six pounds or thereabouts due to the last-mentioned Commissioners, and some further expenses to a small amount incurred in such establishment remain unpaid:

And whereas by the Basses Lights Act, 1869, the Public Works Loan Commissioners were required to advance, for the purpose of constructing a light-house on the Great Basses Rock, off the coast of Ceylon, a sum not exceeding seventy thousand pounds, at the rate of three and a quarter per cent. per annum, to be repayable within a period not exceeding fifty years, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury were authorised to guarantee, jointly with the Secretary of State in Council of India, the principal and interest of such loan, and the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and Secretary of State (in this Act referred to as the guarantors) have given a joint guarantee for the said loan of seventy thousand pounds (in this Act referred to as the loan of 1869), of which sixty thousand pounds have been actually advanced upon such guarantee in pursuance of the said Act at interest at the rate of three and a quarter per cent. per annum :

And whereas by an order in Council of the eleventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, certain dues are required to be paid in respect of the Great Basses Light-house and the Little Basses Light-ship :

And whereas there is standing to the credit of the fund formed out of the dues received in respect of the Little Basses Light-ship or of the Great Basses Light-house and Little Basses Light-ship a balance of seventeen thousand pounds or thereabouts :

And whereas it is expedient to pay out of the said balance such sum as remains due to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the establishment of the Little Basses Light-ship, and any further expense of such establishment remaining unpaid, and to make further provision for the purpose of the construction of the said light-house on the Great Basses Rock, and also of a light-house on the Little Basses Rock, in substitution for the Little Basses Light-ship :

Be it, therefore, enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Basses Lights Act, 1872."

Construction of Act with 17 & 18 Vic., C. 104, and 18 & 19 Vic., C. 91.

2. This Act shall be construed as one with the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and the Merchant Shipping Amendment Act, 1855 (in this Act referred to as the principal Acts), and with the Basses Lights Act, 1869.

3. For the purpose of constructing light-houses on the said Great Basses Rock and Little Basses Rock, the Public Works Loan Commissioners are hereby required to advance in pursuance of the principal Acts, out of the moneys at their disposal, which are applicable for advances under the Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c., Act, 1861, in addition to the loan of 1869, a sum or sums not exceeding in the whole seventy-five thousand pounds. The sums advanced by the Public Works Loan Commissioners in pursuance of this Act shall be secured on the fund formed out of the dues mentioned in this Act, and shall be repayable, as to each portion thereof, within a period not exceeding fifty years from the date of the advance of such portion.

When the aggregate amount borrowed from the Public Works Loan Commissioners in respect of the principal of the loan of 1869, and of the loan advanced in pursuance of this Act, does not exceed one hundred thousand pounds, the interest payable in respect thereof shall be at the rate of three pounds five shillings per annum on each hundred pounds; but when such aggregate amount exceeds one hundred thousand pounds, the interest payable in respect of one hundred thousand pounds shall be at the rate aforesaid, and the interest payable in respect of the excess shall be at the rate of five pounds per annum on each hundred pounds.

4. As soon as a light is exhibited in the Little Basses Light-house so much of the said order in Council of the eleventh day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine as directs what dues are to be paid shall be construed as if Little Basses Light-house were substituted therein for Little Basses Light-ship, and while such order remains in force the dues shall be paid under the said order accordingly, in like manner as if a new order, altered as provided by this section, had been made in the manner and with the consent required by the principal Acts.

The dues payable in respect of the Great Basses Light-house and the Little Basses Light-house shall be altered only with the consent—

- (a) so long as the said guarantee is in force, of the guarantors, and
- (b) so long as any money is due to the Public Works Loan Commissioners in pursuance of this Act, of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

5. * The 17th June 1872.

Dated London, the 17th June 1872.

From—LORD ENFIELD,

To—The Under Secretary of State for India, India Office.

I am directed by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to transmit to you, to be laid before the Secretary of State for India in Council, a translation of a note which has been addressed by the Porte to Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople, stating that arrangements have been made for levying the tax upon pilgrims at Jeddah through the Agents of the Turkish Sanitary Tariff.

Copy of translation by MR. HUGHES of a note from the Minister of Commerce, to the Minister for Foreign Affairs,—dated 5th Rabi-ul-Awwal 1289 (corresponding with 1-13 May).

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of the Grand Vizier's observations, and of the documents therewith enclosed. After referring to the Board of Health, I have the honor to inform Your Excellency that difficulties having arisen in the collection of the tax in question by means of the captains, this has been put aside, and, in future, the collection will be made through the officers of the quarantine, so as to remove the existing opposition. This plan having been approved of by the British Embassy through its delegate at the Board of Health, it is requested that the Embassy will send instructions accordingly to the Consul at Jeddah. No. 1070 of 1872.—His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased, pending the publication of revised clothing regulations, to sanction the following remuneration for extra work performed by Regimental Master Tailors with effect from the 1st April 1872:

The following rates will be admitted as a charge against the State for completing at regimental head quarters articles of clothing supplied by the clothing agency, the amounts being charged in the pay lists, supported by a certified detailed statement of the work performed:

Six pie for sewing on a Staff Serjeant's crowns and badges.

Eight pie for sewing on a Serjeant's and Lance-Serjeant's chevrons, complete.

Where chevrons are worn on both arms, double the above-named rates will be allowed for sewing them on.

In the case of a man being promoted or becoming entitled to a good conduct badge, after being fitted with his tunic, four pies will be allowed for sewing it on.

In regiments or corps provided with a specially enlisted Serjeant Master Tailor, the expense of the necessary alterations to the annual clothing will be defrayed by him out of the allowance of Rs. 440 a year granted him for that purpose; but it should be understood that this allowance only covers the cost of alteration of clothing, and not the cost of making up or completing, for which the Serjeant Master Tailor may be remunerated at the rates already laid down.

Officers commanding may direct the payment of the Rs. 440 to their Serjeant Master Tailor, either on completion of the alteration of the annual clothing, or in such sums as they may think proper during the performance of the work. Master Tailors, whether enlisted or not, will have no claim to the material which may be surplus to the quantities actually required to make up a garment; this is to be handed over to the Quarter Master and accounted for in the annual requisitions as remaining in store. Master Tailors appropriating to their own personal use any materials saved in the cutting of garments, or disposing of the same otherwise than as above prescribed, will render themselves liable to be tried by Court Martial under the provisions of the Mutiny Act, or by the Civil Power.

The annual allowance of Rs. 440 paid to Master Tailors specially enlisted must also cover the expenses of the alteration of first issues of clothing to recruits, but not the cost of altering the clothing of men transferred for their own convenience.

Rupees 4 per mensem will be allowed to Master Tailors for the purpose of providing fuel for the tailor's shop.

The 16th October 1872.

JUDICIAL.

Simla, the 16th October 1872.

No. 230.—The under-mentioned rules for the organization and regulation of the village and regular police in Mysore, having been approved by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General in Council, are hereby published for general information:

I.—Rules for the organization and regulation of the village police in the Province of Mysore.

1. The word "village" in these rules includes all the lands, whether inhabited or not, which are included within the circuit of each village boundary, and not merely the inhabited village site.
2. The administration of the village police throughout each district shall, under the control and direction of the Judicial Commissioner, be exercised by the Magistrate of the District, who may, with the sanction of the Judicial Commissioner, delegate any portion thereof to any of his subordinates exercising the powers of a Magistrate.
3. The village police in each village shall be appointed by the Magistrate of the District, and shall be under the charge of such person as the Magistrate of the District shall appoint in writing to be police patels.
4. In the selection of proper persons as police patels, or heads of the village police, and as village watchmen, the Magistrate shall have due regard to local usage and custom, and, as a rule, shall make his selection from existing patels and village servants. When more persons than one claim the office of patel, by reason of hereditary right, to perform the duties, the Magistrate of the District shall appoint such one of them as he thinks the fittest for the office.
5. In all cases in which existing village patels or servants, or those who may be entitled to claim the office of patel or village servant, according to hereditary or other local usage or custom, are deemed unfitted for the discharge of the duties required of them under these rules, the Magistrate of the District shall take the requisite steps under the orders of the Superintendent of the Division for their places being supplied by duly qualified men in accordance with the custom of the province.
6. In any village or place in which the duties cannot be efficiently performed by one police patel, and in which village or place the provisions of any Municipal Act have not been introduced, the Magistrate of the District may appoint one or more additional police patels for the different divisions into which the village or place may be divided for police purposes.
7. The number of watchmen to be appointed in each village or place shall be regulated by the Magistrate of the District with reference to the size of the village, area, and the local requirements generally. But the number of watchmen shall not exceed one to every thirty houses, and no increase in the number of the existing watchmen of a village shall be made without the sanction of the Superintendent of the Division.
8. In accordance with the existing procedure and rules on the subject, all persons claiming a right to the office of police patel or village servant, and who may be aggrieved by the appointments made by the Magistrate of the District, shall have the right of appeal to the Superintendent of the Division.
9. The police patel shall, subject to the orders of the Magistrate of the District, act under the orders of the police officer in charge of the police station or thannah within whose local jurisdiction his village is situated, whom he shall furnish with any reports or information called for, and keep constantly informed as to the state of crime and all matters connected with the village police and the health and general condition of the community in the village. He shall also afford all police officers every assistance in his power when called upon by them for assistance in the performance of their duty. He shall further promptly obey and execute all orders and warrants issued to him by any Magistrate or police officer, shall collect and communicate to the officers of police intelligence affecting the public peace, shall prevent, within the limits of his village, the commission of offences and public nuisances, and shall detect and bring offenders therein to justice.
10. The police patel shall have authority to require all village watchmen or other village servants liable to be called on for the performance of police duties to aid him in performing the duties entrusted to him, but he is prohibited from employing such village watchmen or servants on his own private affairs.
11. The police patel shall have charge of the village choultry, village gates, boundary hedges and walls, and shall be responsible for reporting the need of repairs, and seeing to their execution.

12. The police patel shall dispose of the village establishments, so as to afford the utmost possible security against robbery, breach of the peace, and acts injurious to the public and to the village community, and shall report to the officer in charge of the police station to whose jurisdiction he is immediately subordinate, all instances of misconduct or neglect committed by any member of the village police.

13. The police patel shall convey to the police officer in charge of the thannah, within whose local jurisdiction his village is situated, immediate intelligence of all information which he may receive respecting the commission, within the limits of his village, of murders, dacoities, robberies, thefts, mischief by fire, and other non-bailable offences, and shall himself proceed to investigate the matter, obtaining all procurable evidence relating to it, pending the arrival of such police officer.

14. The police patel shall also be responsible for conveying immediate intelligence to the thannah of the occurrence of all unnatural and suspicious deaths, of the presence of any robbers or dacoits, or of any habitual receivers of, or dealers in, stolen property, who may have resorted to, or have concealed themselves in, their respective villages or in the adjacent country, and also of any vagrants or other persons who may be lurking about the country without any ostensible means of subsistence, and who cannot give a satisfactory account of themselves.

15. The police patel shall send all such reports to the police officers in charge of thannahs by the village watchmen. All such information and reports shall be communicated verbally to the officers of the regular police.

16. In the matter of inquests to be held in the case of unnatural and suspicious deaths

* "133. The officer in charge of a police station, on receiving notice or information of the unnatural or sudden death of any person, shall immediately give intimation thereof to the nearest Magistrate duly authorized, and shall proceed to the place where the body of such deceased person is, and there, in the presence of two or more respectable inhabitants of the neighbourhood, shall make an investigation, and report the apparent cause of death, describing any mark of violence which may be found on the body, and stating in what manner, or by what weapon or instrument, such mark appears to have been inflicted.

"The report shall be signed by such police officer and other persons, or by so many of them as concur therein, and shall be forthwith forwarded to the Magistrate of the district, or to the Magistrate of the division of a district.

"When there is any doubt regarding the cause of death, the police officer shall forward the body, with a view to its being examined, to the nearest Civil Surgeon or other medical officer appointed in this behalf by the Local Government, if the state of the weather and the distance admit of its being so forwarded without risk of putrefaction on the road.

"In the Presidencies of Madras and Bombay the head of the village may also, in like manner, make the investigation and report to the nearest Magistrate duly authorized."

when any delay occurs in the arrival of a police officer, the police patel will be guided by the existing rules on the subject, as specified in Section 133,* Act X. of 1872.

to hold the investigation) shall forward such person, together with all articles likely to be useful as evidence, to the police officer in charge of the police station within the limits of which his village is situated. Every person so apprehended shall be forwarded within 24 hours to the district police station within the limits of which the village is situated.

18. The police patel in making any enquiry coming within the scope of his duty, not being a case in which it is competent for him to inflict punishment, shall have authority to call and examine witnesses, and record their depositions on solemn affirmation, and to search for concealed articles, taking care that no search be made in a dwelling-house between sun-set and sun-rise without urgent occasion, and that every such search is always conducted in the presence of two or more respectable persons.

19. The police patel shall also have authority in carrying out any search or any pursuit of supposed criminals, to enter and act within the limits of other villages, being bound, however, to give immediate information to the police patel thereof, who shall afford him all the assistance in his power and be immediately responsible for continuing the search or pursuit.

20. Village watchmen shall apprehend all persons whom they may discover committing any criminal offence, and shall carry them before the police patel of their village. They shall likewise apprehend and carry before such patel all persons charged with committing criminal offences, and shall require the prosecutor to accompany them.

21. Village watchmen shall obey all orders which they may receive from the police patels, and shall be held strictly responsible for bringing to their immediate notice all matters which under these rules the police patels are required to report to the police officer in charge of the thannah.

22. Police patels and village watchmen shall have authority to require the inhabitants of their villages to use every effort to oppose and seize persons committing non-bailable offences, or to pursue them if they have fled; and it is incumbent on the inhabitants of the villages, through which, or near to which, the pursuit lies, to afford, on the requisition of the patel or village watchmen, every practicable assistance towards the apprehension of the offenders

17. The police patel shall apprehend any person within the limits of his village who he may have reason to believe has committed any serious offence, and (provided an officer of police has not arrived and for the recovery of any property stolen by them, continuing the pursuit from village to village. Any inhabitant of a village who, on receiving such requisition, refuses or neglects to give such assistance, shall be liable (Section 187, Penal Code) to simple imprisonment for six months, or fine of Rupees five hundred, or both.

23. Any police patel or village watchman, liable to be called on for the performance of police duties, who shall be careless or negligent in the discharge thereof, shall be liable to be fined under the order of any full-power Magistrate to any amount not exceeding his estimated average official emoluments for three months. If he shall be guilty of any violation of duty or breach of the requirements of these rules, or of other misconduct or offence requiring a heavier punishment, he may be dismissed under the orders of the District Magistrate, or he may be proceeded against and punished as a public servant under the provisions of the Indian Penal Code; and in case of conviction he will be liable also to dismissal: provided that in any case of dismissal under this rule, the patel may appeal to the Superintendent of the Division, and that no order of dismissal shall be final without the sanction of the Judicial Commissioner.

24. The police patel shall have authority to try, and, on conviction, to punish with confinement in the village chowry for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours, any person charged with committing within the limits of the village petty assault or abuse, provided the charge be laid within eight days of the offence having been committed.

25. It shall be lawful for the Judicial Commissioner, by an order in writing, to authorize the Magistrate of a District to issue a commission to any person exercising the office of a police patel, empowering such police patel to try any person charged with any of the following offences committed within the limits of the village in which he is police patel, that is to say, mischief or petty thefts not committed by persons of notoriously bad character, when the estimated value of the property stolen, or of damages sustained, does not exceed two rupees; resistance or refusal to obey a lawful order issued by such police patel personally.

Clause 2.—And it shall be lawful for a police patel so empowered to sentence any person convicted before him of any of the above acts, to punishment by fine not exceeding Rupees five, or confinement in the village chowry for a period not exceeding forty-eight hours; the confinement in cases of resistance or refusal to obey a lawful order to be awardable only on a failure to pay a fine.

26. The police patel when and as long as he shall be empowered under Rule 25, clause 1, shall also have authority to punish by a fine not exceeding one rupee, or, in default of payment, by confinement in the village chowry for a period not exceeding twelve hours, any person committing any of the nuisances or disorderly acts below described, and to forbid the continuance or repetition of such nuisances or acts, that is to say,—

- (1) any person who wantonly or cruelly beats, or ill-uses or tortures, any animal;
- (2) any person who bathes or washes in or otherwise defiles, or causes to be defiled, any public well, tank or reservoir, so as to render it less fit for any purpose for which it is set apart;
- (3) any person who deposits in forbidden places any dirt, filth or rubbish;
- (4) any person who on any public street, passage or thoroughfare, commits nuisance by easing himself, or who is, from intoxication, riotous, disorderly or incapable of taking care of himself;
- (5) any person who, without sufficient cause, wilfully allows to accumulate any offensive matter in cess pools, dung heaps or the like, so as to cause annoyance to the neighbouring residents or to passengers, or who, without sufficient cause, wilfully allows any offensive matter to issue on to any public thoroughfare from any house, factory, stable, privy or the like, or who deposits the bodies of dead animals or refuse or filth of any description, either in channels which in the rainy season feed any tank or reservoir set apart for drinking, or in other places where to deposit such is offensive to the community.

27. The proceedings under Rules 24, 25, and 26 shall be oral, and held in presence of the parties, and it shall be optional with the complainant to withdraw his complaint at any time before conviction is recorded. The police patel shall record the names of the parties, the finding, sentence or order, or the withdrawal of the charge, with the date of proceedings, and shall forward the same to the Magistrate to whom he is immediately subordinate in such form and through such channel and at such times as the Magistrate of the District shall prescribe.

28. It shall be lawful for the Magistrate of a District, with the sanction of the Judicial Commissioner, by an order in writing, to cancel, either in whole or in part, any commission issued under Rule 25.

29. The police patel shall take charge of all unclaimed property found within his village or made over to him, and shall forthwith transmit it to the police station within the limits of which his village is situated, unless the property be of a description coming within the provisions of Act No. I. of 1871 (an Act relating to trespass by cattle), in which case the police patel shall be guided by that enactment.

30. In case of the police patel being unable to attend to his duty, owing to urgent absence from the village, sudden illness, or other cause, he shall place a competent kinsman, or failing a competent kinsman, some other competent person in charge of his office, making an immediate report through the thannah police to the Magistrate to whom he is immediately subordinate, and the person so placed in charge shall, until the receipt of instructions to the contrary, continue to act for the police patel in all his duties, except those which involve the trial and punishment of offenders.

31. Upon the death of any village watchman or other person liable to be called upon for the performance of police duties, the police patel shall report the same through the thannah police for the information of the Magistrate of the District, and also the name of the person nominated by him to succeed to the office according to inheritance or other local usage or custom.

32. Nothing contained in these rules shall be construed to prevent the prosecution of any person under any other Regulation or Act for any offence made punishable by these Rules, or from being liable under any other Regulation or Act to any other or higher penalty or punishment than is provided for such offence by these Rules: provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

II.—Rules for the organization and working of a regular police force in the Province of Mysore and for the guidance of the magistracy in connection with the police.

1. Deputy Superintendents or Magistrates of Districts shall be the head executive officers of police in each district, under the immediate orders of the Judicial Commissioner, and will be held strictly responsible for the efficient administration of all police duties within their districts.

2. The police of each district shall consist of the village police and the regular police. Though differently organized, they will, in fact, constitute one force to work together for the general detection and prevention of crime. The members of the village police and those of the regular police will, however, be each held separately responsible for every duty, preventive and detective, which properly belongs to them.

3. In the performance of their duties the members of the regular police force shall be guided by the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code, and of these rules and of those relating to the regulation of the village police.

4. The employment of the members of the regular police will be mainly directed to the detection and prosecution of criminals, and to the general supervision and control of the village police under the immediate orders of the District Magistrate.

5. The Barr sepoy will guard all jails and lock-ups, and will undertake all escort duties. They will also be available, together with the silladar horse, under the orders of the District Magistrate, on such rare occasions when the display of physical force is deemed necessary. The provisions of Sections 482 to 485 of Act X. of 1872 shall apply to such sepoy and sowars as if they were Her Majesty's troops.

6. Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents, amildars, and other judicial officers, who will, as a rule, take up all cases prosecuted by the police, shall have no executive or departmental authority over either the village or regular police. Their relation to the police will be that of judicial officers only, but it will be their duty to watch the proceedings of the police carefully and to report all shortcomings, neglect or irregularities on their part for the orders of the District Magistrate.

7. The members of the regular police force on their part must pay prompt attention and obedience to all the instructions and orders which they may receive from any Magistrate in regard to the prevention and detection of crime. If they are dissatisfied with the proceedings of a subordinate Magistrate, and consider that an error of judgment has been committed by any such officer in regard to any case prosecuted by them, they should report the matter to the District Magistrate as a departmental question, to show that they have done all that lay in their power in getting up the case, and not as a complaint against the officer who tried it.

8. The regular police force shall consist of two classes, viz., officers and constables. There shall be three grades of officers, viz., Inspectors, Sub-Inspectors and Jemadars, and there shall be two grades of constables, viz., 1st and 2nd.

9. A suitable and inexpensive uniform shall be prescribed for all classes and grades of the regular police. This uniform shall be provided by the Government, and shall be worn by the police on all occasions, except (1) when for detective purposes they are authorized not to do so by the written order of an officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector, (2) when for a like purpose an officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector finds it advisable not to wear such uniform or distinguishing dress. The regular police shall also be provided with distinctive badges, belts, and batons. To provide for serious and emergent cases, in which the baton will not be a sufficient weapon, a few swords and muskets will be supplied to each police station.

10. All Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors shall be required to be good horsemen and to keep a horse or pony, and shall receive a monthly allowance of Rupees ten to defray the keep of their horses.

11. The Magistrate of the District shall be held responsible for the selection of intelligent and proper police officers and constables for the regular force, and for the education of the men for the duties they will have to perform. Certified physical fitness for arduous duty and a good degree of natural intelligence shall be indispensable qualifications in the case of every candidate for employment.

12. All nominations to the grade of Inspector shall require the formal sanction of the Judicial Commissioner, and no officer of this grade shall be reduced or dismissed without the approval of the Judicial Commissioner.

13. Before being permanently appointed and deputed to a police station, all constables shall be required to pass an examination in these rules, and those relating to the village police, and in the following sections of Act X. of 1872.

Chapter	VIII.—The whole.
„	X.—The whole.
„	XII.—Sections 152, 153, 154, 155.
„	XIII.—The whole.
„	XXVII.—The whole.

14. Similarly, all officers of police shall be required to pass a strict examination in the rules and in Act X. of 1872.

15. Every Constable or officer so appointed shall receive on his appointment a certificate in the Form No. 1 in the appendix to these rules under the seal and signature of the District Magistrate, by virtue of which the person holding such certificate shall be vested with the powers, functions, and privileges of a police officer. Such certificate shall cease to have effect whenever the person named in it is suspended or dismissed or otherwise removed from employment in the police force, and shall be immediately surrendered, together with all property supplied by Government, such as baton, dress, &c., to the superior officer of such person, or to some other officer empowered to receive the same.

16. No police officer or Constable shall be at liberty to withdraw himself from the duties of his office, unless expressly allowed to do so by the District Magistrate, or by some other officer authorized to grant such permission, or without the leave of the District Magistrate to resign his office, unless he shall have given to his superior officer notice in writing, for a period of not less than two months, of his intention to resign.

17. No police officer or Constable shall be employed, or shall engage in any employment, or office whatever other than his duties under these rules and the Code of Criminal Procedure, and officers of police are prohibited from employing Constables or members of the village police on their private concerns, or on any duties unconnected with the police.

18. Every police officer or Constable shall, for all purposes contained in these rules, be considered to be always on duty, and may at any time be employed in any part of the general police district.

19. It shall be the duty of every police officer to take charge of all unclaimed property and to furnish an inventory thereof to the Magistrate of the District. The police officers shall be guided as to the disposal of such property by such orders as they shall receive from the Magistrate of the District, who may detain the property and issue a proclamation, specifying the articles of which it consists, and requiring any person who has any claim thereto to appear and establish his right to the same within six months from the date of such proclamation. If no person shall, within the period allowed, claim such property, it may be sold under the orders of the Magistrate of the District, and the proceeds shall be at the disposal of Government.
